The Artists

Marvão is one of the most beautiful places in the world.

The combination of divine beauty and perfect aesthetics, with an extraordinary spiritual quality which makes you simply feel "closer to the Gods" persuaded me to create the Marvão International Music Festival.

Christoph Poppen, conductor, world renowned violinist and artistic director of the Festival.

Gulbenkian Orchestra

Established in 1962, this collective features an extensive repertoire and a long standing national and international career. It has been awarded several international prizes, both for its performances as well as for its recordings, and is considered the leading orchestra in Portugal. In Marvão, the orchestra will deliver two memorable performances, on Friday and Saturday evening.

Novus String Quartet

Founded in 2007, the quartet won the 2nd prize at the ARD International Music Competition in Munich in 2012, and in 2013 made its debut at Carnegie Hall. This year they won the string quartet section of the 11th Mozart Competition in Salzburg.

Juliane Banse

An extremely versatile singer, with a vast repertoire and an extensive career both as a performer and a recording artist, Mrs. Banse has reached new heights this year, after being invited to perform at the Metropolitan Opera in New York

Veronika Eberle

Has established a reputation as one of the most promising violin talents to emerge from Germany. Her exceptional talent, the poise and maturity of her musicianship have been recognised by some of the world's finest orchestras, venues and festivals, as well as by some of the world's most eminent conductors.

Jörg Widmann

One of Germany's most sought-after composers and a virtuoso clarinetist, he has performed with major orchestras worldwide. Several clarinet concertos have been dedicated to and premiered by him. His oeuvre includes a large number of chamber music works, a full-length opera and large-scale orchestral works.

Ricardo Gordo

A virtuoso of the traditional portuguese twelve string guitar, the young local artist Ricardo Gordo has already published two records, where he daringly combines this instrument with modern electrical guitar. A talent to keep an eye on for the next years.

and also...

Felix Maria Woschek performs spiritual chants from different traditions, bringing us together in a prayer for world peace.

and Susanne Schietzel Mittelstraß offers two magical improvisational performances in the underground cistern of the Castle, where she plays her stone age flutes in praise of Nossa Senhora da Estrela, the Holy Lady of Marvão.
